

Educators Attend NEASC Self-Study Seminar

For Immediate Release

Donna Brunette, Principal of Mt. Ararat High School, Jessica Belanger, teacher of English, and Sewall Janeway, teacher of Social Studies recently attended a Self-Study Seminar on October 5 at Greely High School. Sponsored by the Commission on Public Schools of the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, the Self-Study Seminar is designed to orient principals and steering committee members of schools scheduled for evaluation in 2018 about the evaluation process and the critical components of the Standards for Accreditation.

The New England Association of Schools and Colleges, founded in 1885, is the oldest accrediting agency in the country and is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education as a reliable agency to award accreditation to New England schools. The association is a voluntary accrediting agency of nearly 2000 public and independent schools, colleges and universities, and vocational, technical, and career institutions. Of these, approximately 650 middle-high schools, K-12, and high schools have been accredited through the Association's Commission on Public Schools.
